A joint declaration made between two kings some 1300 years back proclaims that it was witnessed by Mithra and Varuna. The point to be noted here is -Mithra and Varuna are Devathaas mentioned in our Vedas. The Royal names of the ancient Egyptian Kings Ramesus and our Raman had links. Further analysis reveals that 75% of the names in the African Madagascar sect carry Sanskrit origin. Likewise, the lower side of the globe also indicates this aspect. In a yet another instance, during the annual Navarathri festival time in India people of Mexico also celebrate an important festival which is called Rama Sita just goes to show the unity. Dyeyaam kinnarasithasaaranaivathoo theyyaam sadaa yogini:
Kamaksheem kalaiyaami kalpa lathikaam kanchipuri devathaam

Meaning:

- ❖ Meditating upon you Devi Kamakshi
- ❖ The Mother who gives boons like Karpaga vriksham
- ❖ She is the adhidevathaa of Kanchi!
- ❖ She is the one who shows Her Divine form (Divya Roopa) and gives elation to the devotees with pure heart. She is the basis of yogam.
- ❖ She is one who gets the people of the world to be engulfed in Maya.
- ❖ She is sweeter than honey as She is the Brahma Gnana Swaroopini.
- ❖ Hence all the consorts of Kinnara, Sithaa, Saaranaa and Yogis pray to you!! (to be cont.)

- ❖ Currently there is no information of any worship of the Shakthi peet Devi here.
- ❖ At our Mangalapuri temple, the deity of this Devi is sculpted as per Shilpa sastra.
- ❖ Divine Mother is seen in a standing posture with four hands gives dharshan to devotees.
- ❖ Her upper two hands hold a Conch and a wheel while Her lower hands shower happiness and offers boons.
- ❖ She is fondly called as 'Manakaamna Devi'. i.e., She fulfils the demands arising from good thoughts of a devotee.

Sri Guruji's Amrita Vani – The glory of Guru (Guru Mahima)

- ❖ Devi Kamakshi takes the form (of Guru and pervades to eradicate the ill-effects caused by ignorance of the people. When Mother in the form of showing restraint turns into form of providing favours (showers Anugraham) SHE takes Guru's roopam. In Lalitha Sahasranama, the Divine Mother carries many Guru related names.
- ❖ Like how a mother who shows the father to her child, Divine Mother in the form of Guru, shows Bhagwan, who is the father of everyone, to her devotees. It is befitting to mention here that Mother Ambika herself acts as Gurunathar which Sri Muka Kavi too mentions.
